THE RANGER CREED

Recognizing that I volunteered as a Ranger, fully knowing the hazards of my chosen profession, I will always endeavor to uphold the prestige, honor, and high "esprit de corps" of the Rangers.

Acknowledging the fact that a Ranger is a more elite soldier who arrives at the cutting edge of battle by land, sea, or air, I accept the fact that as a Ranger my country expects me to move further, faster, and fight harder than any other soldier.

Never shall I fail my comrades. I will always keep myself mentally alert, physically strong and morally straight and I will shoulder more than my share of the task whatever it may be. Onehundred- percent and then some.

Gallantly will I show the world that I am a specially selected and well-trained soldier. My courtesy to superior officers, neatness of dress, and care of equipment shall set the example for others to follow.

Energetically will I meet the enemies of my country. I shall defeat them on the field of battle for I am better trained and will fight with all my might. Surrender is not a Ranger word. I will never leave a fallen comrade to fall into the hands of the enemy, and under no circumstances will I ever embarrass my country.

Readily will I display the intestinal fortitude required to fight on to the Ranger objective and complete the mission though I be the lone survivor.

Rangers Lead The Way!

COMPETITION HISTORY

In July of 1981, The Ranger Department was asked to design and conduct a "Ranger Olympics" in order to identify the best two-man Ranger buddy team in the Ranger Department. From the very beginning the objective was clear: the competition should place extreme demands on each buddy teams' physical, mental, technical and tactical skills as Rangers. The standards of performance were to test the mettle of those Ranger qualified Soldiers who dare to compete. The Best Ranger competition was named in Honor of Lieutenant General David E. Grange Jr., Former Ranger Instructor, Ranger Department Director, and Commanding General of Fort Benning, 2nd Infantry Division, and the United States Sixth Army. Mr. Richard A. Leandri, a close personal friend of General Grange, formed the Chairborne Rangers of Clearwater, Florida, in 1979 to financially support the competition and provide awards to the winning teams.

In 1981, Colonel Duane Cameron, Commander, Ranger Department, developed the operational concept and schedule of events for the first Best Ranger Competition, which was further refined by his successor, Colonel Eugene Hawkins.

In 1982, buddy teams from each of the three Ranger Department Divisions competed against each other in the first Best Ranger Competition. The competition expanded in 1982 to include teams from the Ranger Battalions and Special Operation Units throughout the Army. In 1985, the competition was further expanded to include light infantry units and by 1987
the increased interest in the competition resulted in an Army wide invitation to all units with Ranger coded positions. Many of the participating commands conduct preliminary competitions to select the teams which will represent them at Fort Benning each year, resulting in only the best Ranger qualified Soldiers competing.

WHAT MAKES A RANGER?

A more elite Soldier who moves further, faster, and fights harder

"Do things with [his] hands and weapons better than anyone"-The Abrams Charter

Never quit, never surrender

The Best Ranger Competition measures these aspects over a grueling three day competition in which competitors move 60 miles, shoot at seven ranges, and complete Ranger tactical tasks
